

PARK MARKET RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR VENDORS

2019

These rules and guidelines must be followed for a vendor to remain eligible to participate in the Park Market. Failure to follow these rules and guidelines can result in loss of ability to sell goods at the Farmers Market and loss of Farmers Market Fees paid.

The goal of the Park Market is for the neighborhood residents to gain access to quality fruits, vegetables, flowers and plants at a central location, in a neighborly community atmosphere. It is also understood that the vendors are here to make a profit and that an atmosphere must also be maintained for them to be able to sell their wares. To these goals, the rules and guidelines of the Park Market are established. All local, state and federal ordinances must be complied with along with these rules and guidelines.
